

Learning from unexpected teachers

Name: _____ Date: _____

THE STORY

Das Ganu searched for the meaning of a difficult teaching. Baba directed him to learn from a young household worker. Read the chapter, then answer in your own words.

1 What did Das Ganu learn from the girl? What did her actions show him?

2 Why might people have doubted that she could teach him?

DISCUSS TOGETHER

Can someone be grateful for what they have and still work to improve their life?

Explain your view. Listen for a different view before the group decides.

LOOKING AHEAD

One quality I want to build as a student:

One quality I want to build as a person:

One small action I can try this week:

Takeaway: Wisdom can come from anyone. Treat each person as someone worth learning from.